Rev. Daniel Ramos, Pastor

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The beauty of the liturgy truly elevates our hearts and opens our eyes to the profound presence of God among us. It serves as a sacred window to the Divine, drawing us closer to our Savior and enriching our spiritual lives. I want to express my heartfelt appreciation for your unwavering support of this vision, which has been an incredible blessing during my time with you. Thanks to your dedicated efforts, our church has transformed into a more beautiful and welcoming space, serving as a fitting dwelling for God's presence.

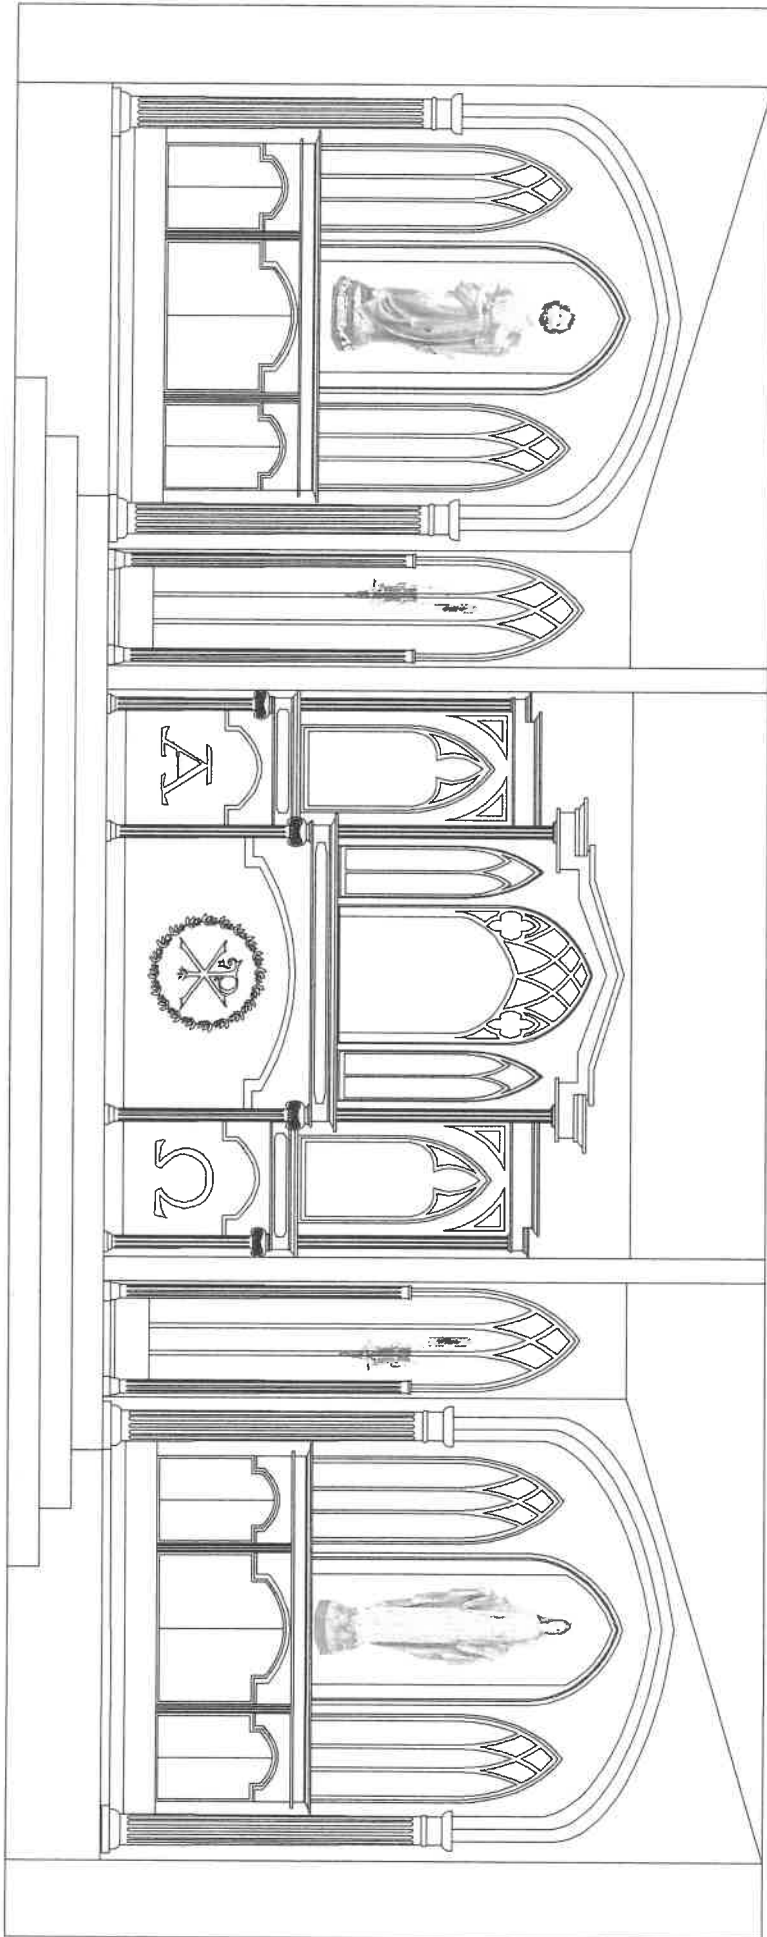

Before each Mass, we come together in prayer, asking for guidance and grace as we prepare to enter into the sacred mystery of the Eucharist. Afterward, we pray the Spiritual Communion, standing in solidarity with one another, particularly with those who are unable to receive Christ at this time due to various circumstances. I am continually inspired by our altar servers, who serve with deep reverence and devotion, honoring the sacredness of the liturgy through their actions. As a visible testament to our love for the sacred, we have thoughtfully crafted new wooden altar pieces—each one handcrafted with care, adding a unique touch that reflects the beauty of the Divine.

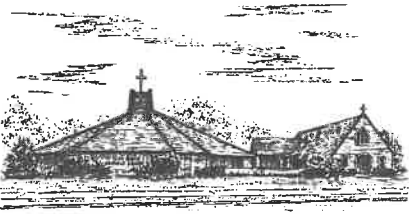

In pursuit of this vision, I am excited to share with you a stunning new design we hope to bring to life. This design aims further to enhance the beauty and functionality of our altar, inviting our hearts to delve more deeply into the mystery of the liturgy. Created by the talented hands and prayerful heart of Deacon Mark Verkamp, this design represents not just a physical transformation of our worship space but also a profound spiritual renewal for our entire community.

Please share your thoughts on this vision with me. If you feel called to support this initiative in any way—be it through prayer, encouragement, or financial contributions—I would be profoundly grateful. Your insights and prayerful discernment mean so much to me and our church community. As your Pastor, I consider it not just my responsibility but my joy to walk this journey with you. Together, your voices and contributions play a vital role in shaping the beauty and spirit of our beloved church.

Rev. Daniel Ramos, Pastor

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

La belleza de la liturgia eleva verdaderamente nuestros corazones y abre nuestros ojos a la profunda presencia de Dios entre nosotros. Es una ventana sagrada hacia lo Divino, que nos acerca a nuestro Salvador y enriquece nuestras vidas espirituales. Quiero expresar mi más sincero agradecimiento por su apoyo constante a esta visión, que ha sido una bendición inmensa durante mi tiempo con ustedes. Gracias a sus esfuerzos dedicados, nuestra iglesia se ha transformado en un espacio más hermoso y acogedor, digno de ser morada de la presencia de Dios.

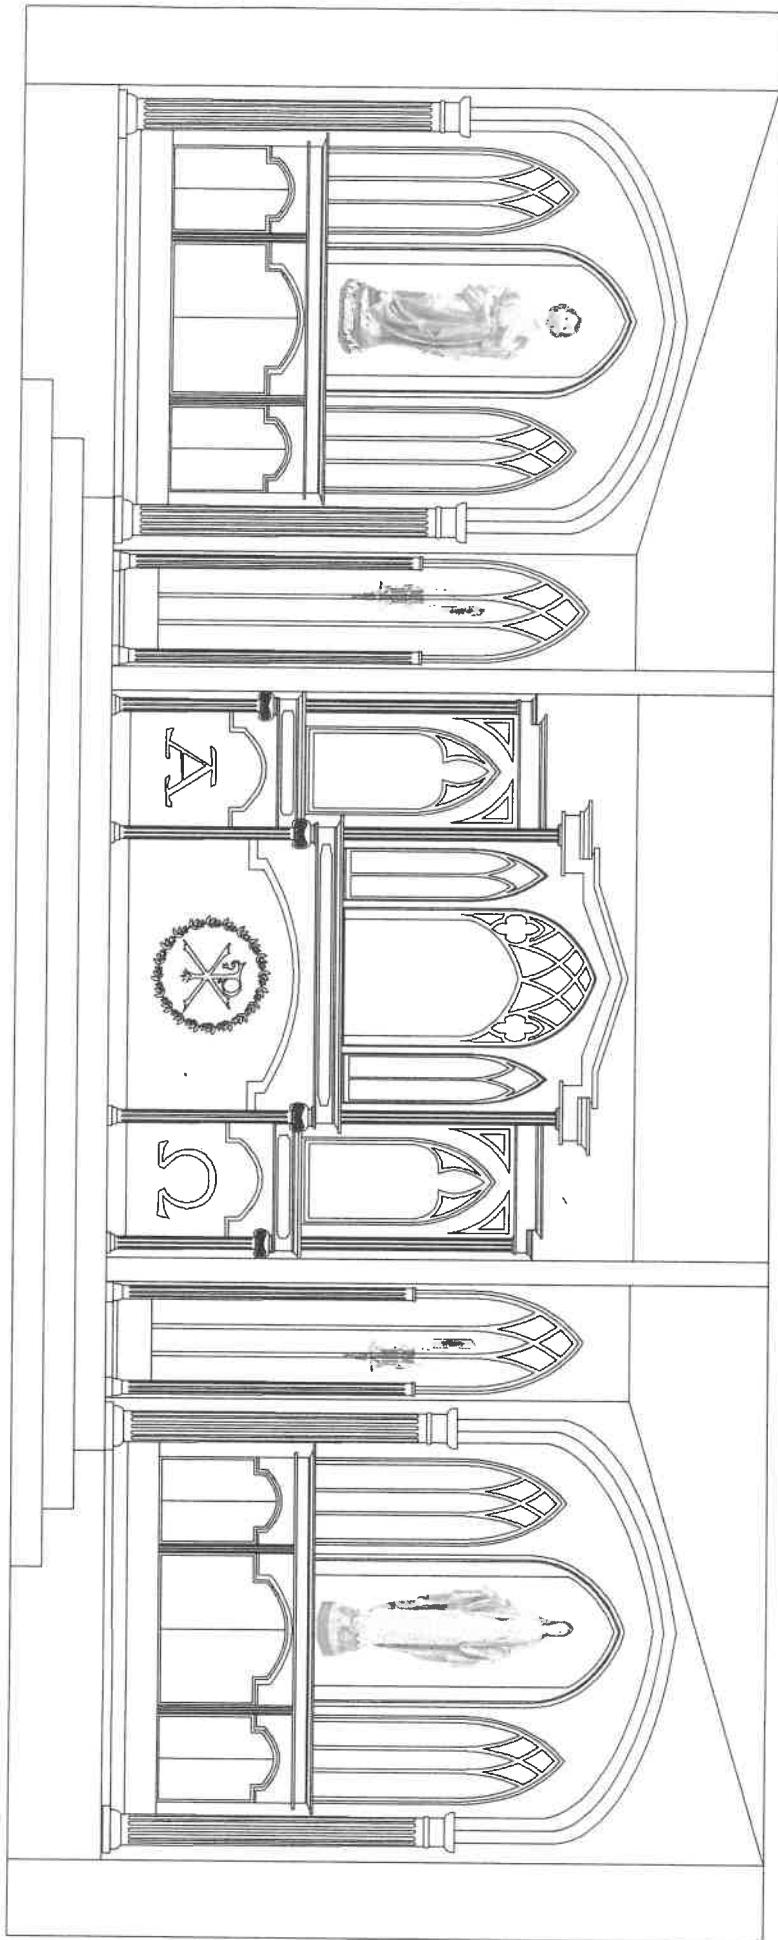

Antes de cada Misa, nos reunimos en oración, pidiendo la guía y la gracia necesarias para entrar en el misterio sagrado de la Eucaristía. Al concluir, rezamos la Comunión Espiritual, permaneciendo unidos en solidaridad, especialmente con aquellos que, por diversas circunstancias, no pueden recibir a Cristo sacramentalmente. Me siento constantemente inspirado por nuestros monaguillos, quienes sirven con profunda reverencia y devoción, honrando lo sagrado a través de sus acciones. Como testimonio visible de nuestro amor por lo sagrado, hemos incorporado nuevas piezas de madera hechas a mano para el altar, cada una elaborada con esmero y cuidado, reflejando la belleza de lo Divino.

En seguimiento de esta visión, me llena de alegría compartir con ustedes un nuevo y hermoso diseño que esperamos hacer realidad. Este diseño busca realzar aún más la belleza y funcionalidad de nuestro altar, invitando a nuestros corazones a adentrarse con mayor profundidad en el misterio de la liturgia. Nacido de las manos talentosas y el corazón orante del Diácono Mark Verkamp, este diseño representa no solo una transformación física de nuestro espacio de culto, sino también una renovación espiritual profunda para toda nuestra comunidad.

Les invito a compartir conmigo sus pensamientos sobre esta visión. Si se sienten llamados a apoyar esta iniciativa—ya sea mediante la oración, el aliento o una contribución económica—les estaré profundamente agradecido. Sus palabras, su discernimiento orante y su apoyo significan mucho para mí y para toda nuestra comunidad parroquial. Como su Pastor, considero no solo una responsabilidad, sino una verdadera alegría, caminar este camino con ustedes. Juntos, sus voces y contribuciones ayudan a dar forma a la belleza y al espíritu de nuestra amada iglesia.
